Registrations are now OPEN for the 2021 Koorie Youth Summit! Every year, the @KoorieYouthCouncil hosts the largest gathering of young mob in Victoria. In a time when we need connection and community more than ever, this year's Summit is coming to you, anywhere with an internet connection.

Held online across 3 weeks in November, the Summit is a chance for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people aged 16-28 living in Victoria to come together and connect, learn from one another and hear the inspiring stories of young mob from First Nations communities. Jam-packed with panels, workshops and interactive yarns and guided by this year's theme 'Barring Djuwima (Sharing Journeys): Heal, Grow, Thrive', the Summit is an experience you don't want to miss!
